

6

OV are forthwith, on receipt hereof, to prepare an Accompt concerning all moneys received by you, or by any other, on your behalfe, or at your appointment, either for pay for the Regiment of _____ under your command, or for advance-money to the Officers and Souldiers in the same, engageing and coming over for Ireland, and for Arrears, or disbanding money to such, as (being in the service in January 1647. and continuing so ever since without discharge or disbanding) did refuse to engage, and did not come over for the present service in Ireland, as also concerning all Bread, Bisket, or other provisions received by you, or any other in your behalfe, or by your appointment for the supply of the said Regiment, or any part thereof, out of any the publique stores, for which payment hath not been already made to the Commissary in money. In which Accompt you are to observe the rules following, viz.

1. To expresse what moneys were received for any the purposes aforesaid in England, and how the same were disposed of, in particulars, and to whom, according to their severall qualifications aforementioned.

2. What moneys have (to your best knowledge) been assigned for the pay of the said Regiment by the Comitee for the Army, since the coming over of the said Regiment into Ireland, how much thereof hath been brought over into Ireland, and received accordingly, and how the same hath beeene disposed of particularly, and what remaines of such assignements to be received or brought over, and in what Agents hands the charge thereof is, and where he keeps or resides with the said money to the best of your knowledge

3. What moneys have been received for any the uses aforesaid by order from the Lord Lieutenant out of the Treasury here since the coming over of the Regiment into Ireland, and how the same hath been particularly disposed of, according to the Musters.

4. What proportions of Bread, Bisket, or other provisions have beeene received as aforesaid, for which payment hath not been already made to the Commissary in money.

5. What ever of the particulars aforesaid, you cannot give such exact and particular accompt as aforesaid, for, or in behalfe of your whole Regiment, you are to require and cause the severall Captains or chiefe Officers present with the severall companyes, therein to prepare such accompts as aforesaid, for so much as concerneth their particular companies respectivly.

6. For the better clearing the first and second parts of the Accompts aforesaid, you are to send in for your Regiment, or caule the Officers for their respective companyes to send in, and deliver unto the Commissioners hereafter mentioned, all the Copies of any the Musters of them taken in England since the beginning of Aprill last, with the attestations, or certificates unto them under the hand of the Commissary that tooke the Musters respectivly.

All which accompts and the severall parts thereof (being prepared as aforesaid) you are to bring in, or cause to be brought in and delivered before the 24. day of this instant Januari, unto Col. Thomas Herbert, Col. Vincent Potter, and the Marshall Generall of the Army, or any of them (being Commissioners appointed for the receiving, examining, stating and ballancing of the said accompts) and if you cannot so suddainly prepare and bring in such exact accompts as aforesaid, for and concerning all the severall matters or parts thereof aforementioned, yet you are by the time afore limited to bring in or cause to be brought in and delivered as aforesaid such accompts and for so much of the premies, as you for the said Regiment or the severall Officers under you for their respective companyes can possibly by that time make ready, to the utmost and best of your, or their knowledge.